

41st Thailand University Games

Mordindaeng games

Mordindaeng games or the 41st University Games' is inspired by the slogan "Mor Din Daeng, More Than Games". It means that what athletes from all institutions will gain are more than just a game; love, unity, sportsmanship spirit, forgiveness, teamwork, networking will impress all until the end of the competition. The university games will be held during 14-22 January, 2014 at Khon Kaen University in Khon Kaen province.

Mascot The mascot of the 41st University Games or Mordindaeng games is designated by Khon Kaen University, the host as Kanlapa phruek flower. Kanlapa phruek flower is a symbolic flower of Khon Kaen University. The tree was bestowed on the university by HM the King and the Queen during their royal visit to officiate the opening ceremony on December 20th, 1967. Kanlapa phruek flower has its scientific name as Cassia bakeriana Craib. It is a mid-size tree, with broad clustered leaves, gives pink flowers usually in winter and turn white when withered.

Crossword Team declared close in the match gracefully winning 3 Golds and 2 Bronzes

Reaching up to the last day of Crossword competition, ABAC sent the team to compete in men's and women's individual categories. The men's individual players were Mr. Thanapong Kukiattikulchai and Mr. Sinatarn Pattanasuwanna. The women's individual players were Ms. Phattharawan Watchanalak and Ms. U-Sa Suwankamol. When the competition finished, it revealed that Mr. Thanapong did his best performance by stepping into the final round and could win the player from Chulalongkorn University getting another Gold medal. The overall performance of Crossword team was as followings;

- * 1 Gold Medal: Men's Team (Mr. Nattawuth Chinrunroj, Mr. Thanapong Kukiattikulchai, Mr. Tanasak Suphaphibunkun, and Mr. Sinatarn Pattanasuwanna)
- * 1 Gold Medal: Men's Pairs (Mr. Nattawuth Chinrunroj and Mr. Thanapong Kukiattikulchai)
- * 1 Gold Medal: Men's Individual (Mr. Thanapong Kukiattikulchai)
- * 1 Bronze Medal: Women's Team (Ms. Phattharawan Watchanalak, Ms. Varaporn Kukiattikulchai, Ms. Mooktapa Tantivejakul, and Ms. U-Sa Suwankamol)
- * 1 Bronze Medal: Mixed Pairs (Ms. U-Sa Suwankamol and Mr. Tanasak Suphaphibunkun)

It was marvelous that AU Crossword team has done the great job and declared close in the match gracefully. And of course, this outstanding performance could lead AU to be at the 14th rank from 112 participating institutes. Now Assumption University came in the 14th position on the medal chart with 3 Golds and 2 Bronzes from Crossword and another 1 Bronze from Swimming. Although Crossword

SA Administrators stick to the edge of the field for cheering up

Student Affairs Administrators of Assumption University led by Dr.Vindhai Cocracul, Vice Rector for Student Affairs, Dr.Chirapa Srikalasin, Assistant to Vice President for Student Affairs, and A.Sorana Arunrat, Assistant to Vice President for Student Affairs arrived Rachavadee Hotel, Khon Kaen, which is the athletes' accommodation at 8.30 a.m. on January 14, 2014 to boost AU teams' morale.

The first competition was the dance sport in the category of Standard Class D (Tango and Waltz/ Figure: Open Basic), performed by Mr. Vasutorn Chantara and Ms. Natsuda JitjomnongmateS. Apart from the dance sport, they also went to Si than tennis court to spectate the individual women match. In the afternoon, SA administrators proceeded to attend the 41st Thailand University Games “Mor Din Daeng Games” Opening Ceremony at Khon Kaen University Central Stadium and then went back to Rachavadee hotel for the Welcoming Party.

It was a remarkable occasion for your kindness towards this competition. The organizing committee and all athletes would like to express our gratitude for your great support and encouragement.

We are ready for U-Games # 41

AU Athlete Teams are ready for the Mor Din Daeng Games (41st the Thailand University Games) which will be held from January 14 – 22, 2014 at Khon Kaen University.

The Commentary Ceremony was taken place on January 8, 2014 at the concourse in front of CL Building, Assumption University, Suvarnabhumi Campus. The ceremony was started with the parade procession of Nawaminthrachinuthit Triam Udomsuksa Pattanakarn's orchestra leading the AU Athlete Teams Leader, A. Chukiat Kiatdherarat, the flag procession leader, Mr.Kantapon Vittayapreechapol, the President of Assumption University Student Organization, the athlete representatives, Ms.Cassandra Haller, the gold medal SEA GAMES Tae Kwon Do athlete, and Mr.Gavin Lewis, the bronze medal SEA GAMES Swimming athlete, including team managers, organizing committee and all AU athletes from Faculty of Engineering to the Cathedral of Learning. The Highlights in this occasion are the University's flag presentation and the commentary speech delivery given by Rev.Bro.Dr.Bancha Saenghiran, Rector Magnificus. The main content of the commentary speech is to embolden the group to successfully compete in the competition. He also emphasized that the main purpose of sport is not to win but to recreate and to educate. The slogan "Mor Din Daeng, More than Games" means all athletes will gain more than just competition in sports, but also harmony, teamwork, and sportsmanship which will last after the competition is over. Then, the pledging ceremony led by Mr. Gavin Lewis was regarded as the readiness announcement for AU army in Mor Din Daeng Games.

Assumption University is sending 140 athletes for 18 sport categories this year. Let's cheer up our representatives and visit www.ugames41.au.edu for more information. We will surely keep you updated.
